Activities

While you are here for Devo Championships in Winter Park, each athlete will be assigned a new team at random. Each team will be made up of members from every mountain so the athletes can get to know skiers from other mountains. You will work with your team to earn prizes during Devo Championships. Some awards include Mogul Mountain Masters and Most Spirited Team award. You will get your team color at registration. This is a great way to make some new freestyle friends from all over Colorado.

On Mountain Treasure Hunt

Saturday March 14th is official Treasure Hunting Day! At the beginning of the day, treasure hunt sheets will be available with clues for hidden items all over Winter Park and Mary Jane mountains. Some clues will be obvious to everyone, and some clues you may need a little help from the WP locals (either your teammates or other Winter Park gurus). The team with the most hidden items will be given prizes and hailed as the Mogul Mountain Masters at awards at the end of the day. Good luck!

Ice Cream Social

Sunday March 15th we will have an Ice Cream Social at the end of the day before awards in the Upper Balcony House. The time is tentatively scheduled for 3pm but is subject to change due to the daily schedule. Ski hard so you can bring your appetite because we will have great ice cream and toppings!
