

Hosts

1st Annual SSWSC Super Splashdown Water Jump Event and Jump-A-Thon athlete fundraiser
August 23rd, 24th and 25th at Bald Eagle Lake

What you need to know:

- Age categories: U11 / U13 / U15 / U17 / U19 / Senior
- Prior water ramp experience required (i.e. no first-timers!)
- Cost: Entry $45
- Registration is on RMF's website.
- Athlete will require up to date USSA license to register.
- If you have a 10 day punch card or season pass:
If you have a punch card, it will be punched for day of training only. If you have a season pass you do not have to pay to jump. PLEASE understand that the entry fee, ($45), for the event is above and beyond the jumping fee on the training day.
- Camping is available on the property at $15 per night.
- NO DOGS PLEASE, (no exceptions)
- No campfires possible on the property so please bring a camp stove if you want to cook food.
- Event capped at 100 athletes
- Parent hosted BBQ on Saturday night sponsored by Ron Wendler of Colorado Group Realty
- No alcohol on premises.
- Property has to be quiet starting at 9:30
- No swimming past 8:30

Schedule:

- Friday – Training
 - 10:00 – 4:00
- Saturday – Competition
 - 8:30 – 10:30 Training
 - 11:00 Competition starts
 - Best of two jumps
 - 2:30 SUPER FINAL - Top 16 men and women to the super final off Single Kicker for 3rd jump.
 - 6:00 BBQ sponsored by Ron Wendler of Colorado Group Realty
- Sunday - Jump-A-Thon
 - 9:00 – 1:00
 - How many jumps can an athlete do in 4 hours and how much money can they raise for their upcoming season?
 - Jump-a-thon works as follows:
 - The athlete goes to RallyMe.com and creates an account for the Jump-A-Thon, pledging money towards the athletes jump goal. Athlete will fundraise pledges from friends, families and any available donor to raise money for their upcoming training/travel and competition season. The athlete retains 60% + of their earnings and the SSWSC Water Ramp Fund receives 30%. Remaining money is for RallyMe.com service fee)
 - Event capped at 100 athletes